

Rickets & Newton, wooden warehouse, 1,500
 Benj. Ricketts, bake-house, 3,000
 J. & T. Gilpin, old stone house, 1,000
 Lawrence Hill, cooper's shop, 300
 We pretend not to exactness in these calculations. Probably the estimations are uncorrected; and the loss little short of 200,000 dollars. Very little of the property was injured. A report that one of the stores contained a large quantity of powder, tho' erroneous; presented the saving of a considerable property, and considerably checked the exertions of the citizens for sometime.—No lives were lost, and little personal injury received.
 SEPTEMBER 27.

Correct account of the fire.—We stated in our last, that we pretended not to exactness in our calculations, relative to individual losses. We since learn that, in many instances we have, contrary to our expectations, exceeded the amount of injury sustained, and have also omitted to mention a circumstance which it is very material should be stated, and that is, that of the merchandise contained in the warehouse of Mr. Ladd, by far the greater portion consisted of assignments. Mr. Ladd, is absent at this time, and we are therefore unable to speak with any precision what has been the individual loss in goods, but we have been informed from a source meriting confidence, that the probability is it does not exceed ten or fifteen thousand dollars.

Mr. Leap's house was insured.
 James Lawraon's house was insured.
 The loss of merchandise in the warehouse of Lawraon & Fowle, is stated not to have exceeded 5 or 6000 dollars, & their own loss was short of 1000 dollars.
 Dean's entire loss will not exceed 1000 dollars.
 Thomas Preston's loss not exceeding 2500 dollars.
 In other respects as far as we are yet informed, our estimate may be considered as tolerably correct.

BOSTON, SEPT. 21.
 FROM CADIZ.

Captain Snow, from Cadiz, failed on the 15th of August. No new event of any importance had occurred. There had been very large importations of flour, and there was a good supply of water. The inhabitants were confident of their security. An incessant fire was kept up on the positions occupied by the French, particularly at Procadero.

We have been presented with Cadiz prints to the 11th. They relate nothing new having occurred in that city. The intelligence in them, from Badajoz, is to the 5th; and furnishes some particular of the operations of the Spanish troops, under Gen. Charles O'Donnell, against the rear of Regnier's French division, which had crossed the Tagus—and Spanish Estremadura was considered free from the molestations of the enemy. A Spanish expedition of five ships had landed troops at Santona, which took the French Garrison, and, proceeding on the road of St. Andero, routed a body of Gallic troops, and took in part an American ship.

A letter from Henrick O'Donnell, commander in chief of the army of Catalonia, dated at Tarragona, July 22, mentions, that the French army of Arragon, of 2,000 infantry and 1000 cavalry, continued on the banks of the Ebro, near Tortosa; that there were almost daily combats, in which the Patriots occasioned the invaders great losses; that in an affair of the 14th of July, at Tarragona, the enemy lost a colonel, 17 other officers, and a proportionate number of soldiers; but the French being reinforced, the Spaniards retired to the positions they occupied before the combat;—that on the 18th, a battle took place between 10 or 12000 French troops, under Gen. Macdonald, and 9 or 10,000 Spaniards, including armed peasantry, near Granollers; it lasted 6 hours, when the French entered Barcelona. "The enemy lost 700 men, and carried a great number of wounded into the city. On our part we had from 120 to 140 killed, and 400 wounded. After this battle the patriot troops engaged in it retired to Ironzo, on the Lobregat, to impede the enemy should he march for this river or the position of Montserrat; and to keep open the intercourse with Tarragona."

It is probable that the movements of the French General Suchet, on Tortosa, [50 miles further down the Mediterranean than Tarragona] were with a design to attract our forces to that place, to leave Macdonald a better opportunity to attack Tarragona; but on both sides we have divisions that will intercept their communications, and, when occasion offers, will renew the scenes of Villa Franca, Manresa, &c.
 The siege of Tortosa appears to have been commenced by the French.
 A corps of peasantry hover near Gerona, and in two successive rencontres with equal force of the enemy, have beaten them.
 The papers contain a journal of the operations of the 5000 troops, which were sent from Cadiz to Algeziras, under the command of general Lacy.—From the 17th

June to the 28th of July, they were almost continually in motion annoying the enemy. On the latter day, they received orders to return to Cadiz.

We are indebted to captain Snow, of the brig Helen; and captain Knights, a passenger, for Cadiz papers to the 11th of August, from which we have prepared the above summary.

We were presented with Corunna papers to the 3d of August. They contain numerous articles respecting the operations of the patriots in arms in several parts of Leon and Asturias; whose numbers are represented as considerable, and daily increasing. They display an augmented enthusiasm, and greatly harass the enemy.

NEW-YORK, SEPT. 28.
 LATEST FROM EUROPE:

By the arrival this morning, of the ship Francis, captain Taylor, in 27 days from Greenock, we have received files of London, Greenock and Belfast papers to the last of Aug. Belfast dates are to the 22d—London to the 26th, and Greenock to the 30th. They are very barren of intelligence of a political nature. The British orders in council were not repealed as late as the 25th of Aug. but it was still expected that a revocation would be made, so as to take place immediately after the decrees of Buonaparte should cease to operate. The news from the seat of war is no later than we have before received. It appears from the London papers that the harvest was better than had been expected, but from the great demand of flour for the armies, the price still kept up; and it was thought would continue high for sometime yet to come.

A plan is on foot in G. Britain to have the Duke of York restored to the command of the army. A petition intended to be presented to the king for that purpose, is now circulating among the officers of the army for signatures.

WASHINGTON CITY, SEPT. 28.
 A PUBLIC LOAN.

We understand that a Loan has been obtained by Government from the Bank of the U. States, for 3,750,000 dollars—pursuant to an act of Congress passed the last Session, authorizing the President to borrow a sum not exceeding 8,000,000. The money borrowed is to bear an interest of 6 per cent. per annum and to be reimbursed on the 31st December, 1811—unless congress shall refuse to grant a charter to the bank of the United States; in which case the sum loaned is to be reimbursed within three months after the bank shall demand the same.—Spirit of '76

FRENCH DECREES.

The National Intelligencer of Friday last, says, "we understand that no information of the late decrees, &c. of the Emperor of France, has reached the seat of government, other than that received thro' the British papers."

ACCIDENTS.

On Thursday about noon, the new Powder Mills of Mr. Worrell, at Frankford, blew up with a tremendous explosion. The workmen fortunately being at dinner, no lives were lost.

On the same day as a drove of Cattle were passing across the new bridge at the Falls of Schuylkill, the works suddenly gave way, and part of the superstructure fell into the river. [Phil. Gas.]

Academy for Young Ladies.

MR. N. PALMER

RESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of Annapolis, and its vicinity, that he has made arrangements for succeeding the Rev. WILLIAM NIND, in the establishment for the tuition of Young Ladies, to keep up the credit of which, every possible exertion will be made; and he flatters himself, that such parents as may think proper to intrust to him the care of their daughters education, will have no cause to regret the confidence with which they may honour him.

Young Ladies in the country, desirous of acquiring a polite and liberal education, will experience no difficulty in obtaining comfortable accommodations in genteel and respectable families.

Mr. PALMER purposes commencing on Monday the 8th of October, in the room formerly occupied as a piece of instruction by Miss HEFFERNAN, near the residence of Nicholas Brewer, Esq.

Taken up Adrift

ON my shore, near Sandy Point, the bottom of an OLD ARK, which contains three logs about 50 or 60 feet in length; the bottom was planked over, but by thumping on the shore had knocked one side loose. I tied it on the shore three days, and it broke away twice in the time. The only way I had of securing it, was by sawing it in pieces and taking it on the shore. The owner may have it again by proving his property & paying me for my trouble.

JOHN WEDG. 100/76

Fifty Dollars Reward

RAN away from the subscriber's farm, on Severn river, in Anne-Arundel county on Saturday, the 29th Sept. EZEKIEL, a stout man, upwards of six feet high, (he is a clear mulatto under his cloaths,) his face somewhat sun burnt, high and large cheek-bones, his hair curly and black, and I believe tolerably short. This fellow cannot go unnoticed as he is a sensible smart fellow, being complainant when sober, he is rather fond of liquor, which was the cause of his absconding, from his impertinence when so. Had on when he went away an osnabrig shirt and trousers, a pair of shoes nearly new & nailed, a coarse straw hat, short drab coat, and probably a short over jacket of the same colour, a large leather apron, tho' it is likely he will change them. Ezekiel is an ingenious fellow, a very good rough carpenter & cooper, & can do a little of Smith's work; he is lively, brisk & active considering his age which is about 50, he is a little ruptured, but cannot be discovered when he has his cloaths on. Fifteen Dollars will be paid for apprehending and securing him, if found within fifteen miles of my house, if thirty miles, thirty dollars, and if out of the state the above reward, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home.
